By Jennifer Crusie □□□□ This isn't the only book Crusie has written using the theme obsessive love. I think one of the others was Crazy for You. She handles such a serious subject with both truth and humor, mixing it with a nice little mystery. I loved the heroine of this one.

Getting Rid of Bradley (MIRA): Crusie, Jennifer ...

A really lovely book from Jennifer Crusie, charming, fun, great dialogue and characters you'll fall in love with, both the main characters and supporting. Yes, it's light, not deep, no angst, but that's what is great about it. Absolutely perfect to read on the beach or in the garden on a sunny day or for a lazy afternoon on the sofa in winter.

Jennifer Crusie is always a delight. It is Chick Lot at its finest. I read all genres but when I need to laugh and just thoroughly escape from stress and pressure, I can always find that escape in her books. I read everything that she had written ten years ago but recently discovered she has written more. My happy dance is still going strong.
