How to Ditch Your Fairy - Wikipedia

The front cover, the blurb and the author attracted me to "How to Ditch Your Fairy" but I didn't like Charlie's narration and I hated the use of slang. A total waste of time! A fun, quick read from the author of the "Magic or Madness" trilogy. The author creates a world where some people believe they have personal fairies, with varying success.

How to ditch your fairy (Book, 2008) [WorldCat.org]

How to Ditch Your Fairy is set in neither. Instead, Larbalestier has created an imaginary country; an amalgam of the two. The effect is rather like being thrown into the deep end of the pool to learn to swim. The setting, the slang, and the culture are utterly alien and initially quite confusing. (The book includes a character as clueless as ...

How to Ditch Your Fairy eBook by Justine Larbalestier ...

Well, words can't describe how disappointed I am with this book. Larbalestier's "Liar" was fantastic, but I have found her other offerings very mediocre and this one was just ridiculous. The front cover, the blurb and the author attracted me to "How to Ditch Your Fairy" but I didn't like Charlie's narration and I hated the use of slang.
