Memorial Gary Crew

Memorial by Gary Crew, illustrated by Shaun Tan, is the story of a boy who is learning about war from the perspective of his father, grandfather, and great grandfather. Throughout the story, the author reveals that a memorial statue or memorial tree may have to be torn down within a small community and even though it is terrible, the boy realizes that what lasts is the memory.

Author Gary Crew and I collaborated quite closely in developing both text and illustrations, such that the two married in a way that was understated and thought provoking. What made the book especially engaging for both of us was that it ended up being not about war, memorials or remembrance as 'grand' subjects, but rather the small, quiet memories that make up ordinary day-to-day lives.
