To better inform such beliefs about the rate of double voting, we develop and apply a method to estimate how many people voted twice in the 2012 presidential election. We estimate that about one in 4,000 voters cast two ballots, although an audit suggests that the true rate may be lower due to small errors in electronic vote records.

Odds That One Vote Can Make a Difference . Economists Casey B. Mulligan and Charles G. Hunter concluded in a 2001 study that only one of every 100,000 votes cast in federal elections, and one of every 15,000 votes cast in state legislative elections “mattered in the sense that they were cast for a candidate that officially tied or won by one vote.”

(2) Votes in the primary elections of more than one (1) political party in an election. Texas. Tex. Code Ann., Election Code §64.012. Prohibits voting twice in the same election. (a) A person commits an offense if the person: (2) knowingly votes or attempts to vote more than once in an election;

Double Voting - National Conference of State Legislatures

Voting for two candidates in cumulative voting is statistically no different than flipping a coin over which of two candidates to vote for in a traditional first-past-the-post election. Tactical voting is the practice of voting for one candidate to help prevent an even worse candidate from winning, instead of voting for who you actually like the best.
