Where to start with Aatish Taseer's The Temple-Goers? I've already read one review with its knives sharpened, and a couple of others that are way more receptive. (Always a bad idea to read these reviews before writing your own, but this is a non-review review as I told Mr Taseer when I e-mailed him some questions,)

Book of the Month: 'The Temple-Goers' - Amrita Tripathi' Blog

The Temple-goers by Aatish Taseer. At times this book made me feel nostalgic for the India I've visited some time ago: the smells, the colours and the poetry unique to the country. But the tale of Aatish and Aakash had for me the quality of 'Bombay mix': moreish when fresh and new, rancid when old.
