As humans, we tend to assume that we can see, feel and experience everything there is to be perceived in life. Since birth, we're conditioned to believe that we're a superior, infallible race of beings that can control everything - even if we suspect deep down that we can't. But I've always felt that there is much more to existence.

First, 23 and 24 are not two separate scriptures. 24 is a continuation of 23. Second, in 23, we first believe that what we ask for will come to pass, and in 24, we are to confess it until we have received it. We are to believe that we are receiving it when we pray, while the thing we desire "shall" come to pass in the future, in God's timing.
